Bridge Rebuilt!

The Lake Champlain Bridge has reopened on November 7 2011. The bridge has opened between Crown Point NY and Addison VT. The bridge closed in October of 2009. The bridge closed because it was unsafe. The ferries were a substitution while the new safe bridge was being built. The old bridge had 1-inch cracks. Since the ferries were used they had to hire employees. The bridge opening had an effect on the employees. 70 of them will be laid off. A disadvantage to the workers but a relief to have the bridge back!
